Cascade County

Located in central Montana, Cascade County is Montana's third most populous with 77,691 residents, according to the 1990 Census.

Great Falls, the county seat, is the state's second largest city with a population of 55,125. Agriculture, livestock and defense are the industrial backbone of the city's economy. Malmstrom Air Force Base alone pumps about $273 million annually into the area's economy. The city is also a major medical center.

According to the U.S. Bureau of the Census, median income for Cascade County households in 1989 was $23,700. The county is 2,673 square miles in area; 2,659 square miles in land area and 14 in inland water area.

County residents experience the four distinct seasons. Average normal monthly temperatures, for example in Great Falls, range from 21.2 degrees above in January to a maximum of 83.3 above in July. The annual average precipitation is 15.05 inches and annual average snow 59.1 inches. The average length of the growing season is 140 days.
